Communication in Aix-en-Provence
FRANCE

Explore interpersonal and intercultural relationships in one of the loveliest cities in the south of France. Observe commonalities and differences between American and European culture through observations in the streets, cafes and markets of Aix-en-Provence and surrounding areas.

Live with a French host family to deepen your understanding of French culture and tradition. Enjoy day trips to scenic Sain-Remy de Provence and historical Avignon. Expand your knowledge and experience of the region with an additional three weeks in France during the IAU Provence transfer course.

ACADEMICS

• 3 UNT credits + 3 transfer credits
• COMM 2020: Interpersonal Communication
• Transfer (HUM 301C): From Bordeaux to Lyon: A Trip Through the Cultural Landscapes of Southern France

ELIGIBILITY

• Open to all majors
• Minimum 2.25 GPA
• No prerequisites

DATES

Application Deadline: March 1, 2019
Depart: May 31, 2019
Return: July 14, 2019

CONTACT

Dr. Joseph McGlynn, Assistant Professor
Joseph.McGlynn@unt.edu

Study Abroad Office
FacultyLedPrograms@unt.edu

COST

$TBD

Cost includes housing, daily breakfast and six dinners per week, UNT tuition*, transfer tuition, excursions, program activities, study abroad fees and health insurance.

Additional expenses include airfare, passport, visa, meals not listed above, and course materials.

Scholarships and financial aid available.

*in-state, undergraduate tuition rate

UNTStudyAbroad
studyabroad.unt.edu/FL